

AWAY FROM RAT RACE IN RURAL RETREAT

DISCOVERY: Geraldine ditched the frenzy of modern life to find herself in idyllic retreat

STRESSED: Ronson

RONSON STUCK IN A FUNK

By FRANK DURHAM

MARK RONSON is delighted his latest album is such a big hit – if only to make all the suffering he went through making it worthwhile.

The Brit musician has told how making new album Uptown Special, which includes number one single Uptown Funk, made him physically ill.

Fainted

“I wanted this album to be the best thing I have done and that made it a little stressful,” says Mark (39).

“My hair was falling out, I fainted at one point and I threw up just because it was stuff I haven’t had to experience before. But it was worth it and I would do it all again if I thought it would help me make a great record.”
