

WRITERS TO UNVEIL SIX NEW PLAYS

SIX up and coming writers are set to give theatre goers a unique take on modern Ireland when the curtain rises on an evening of short plays.

If you've ever struggled against the weirdness of life and chance encounters then you'll love 'Cracked Eggs' an evening of six short contemporary plays from the new writers behind a production company called Scarlet Exchange which was set up by six writers who met at the Fishamble Playwriting course.

The show will run at 8pm from Tuesday 27th to Saturday 31st October in the New Theatre, 43 East Essex Street, Temple Bar. Tickets €15, concession €10. Tickets on sale through the New Theatre at 6703361

EXCLUSIVE CLAIRVOYANT PREDICTS THAT OUR

DOUBLE

JUST IMAGINE

A LETTER FROM SANTA!

This Christmas have Santa send that special little someone a personalised letter

Receive a personalised letter including a colouring set with crayons and a special Certificate of Goodness from Santa to your child posted to their house!

To order a letter by phone simply call:

1590 778 119

(Calls cost €2.90 p/min and last approx 2 mins 10 sec)

and follow the instructions

To order a letter by text:

text SWSANTA to 57802

(Texts cost 4x €2.00)

SUNDAY WORLD

€6 per phone order incl VAT (Calls cost €2.90 p/min and last approx 2 mins 10 sec) Calls from mobile cost more. €8 per SMS order incl VAT (4 SMS required to complete order) Network charges apply. Lines close Midnight Monday 7th December 2009. Post only available within ROI and UK. Letters will be sent before last post as recommended by An Post for Christmas delivery. SP Photovision, PO Box 6, Dun Laoghaire, Co Dublin. Helpline 0818217100

ANOTHER VIEW:
The Virgin as seen and photographed by Sligo dad Timothy O'Shea in Knock

SPECIAL PLACE: Our Geraldine at the site of the original apparition in Knock