Bright idea: The new playground at Shanganagh Park on the Bray Road in Shankill, Co Dublin which is in easy access for Paedophiles

HALLOF SHAME

THE perverts who attend the Granada Institute "come from all walks of life", its Director Dr Pat Walsh points out. Here are just some of the 200 dangerous sex offenders who have passed through its doors since it opened 10 years ago. Some are believed to be still attending the centre for three-times-a-week sessions.

THE PRIESTS

FR DONAL COLLINS, RONALD BENNETT, FR PATRICK MAGUIRE, FR THOMAS NAUGHTON AND FR HARRY MOORE:

Fr Moore, in his 60s, is convicted of two counts of buggery and two of indecent assault. He forced a 16-year-old boy to perform oral and anal sex on him between 1984 and 1985, when he was a curate in north Dublin. But his jail sentences were suspended for 10 years on grounds of poor health and old age – on condition he continues to attend the Granada Institute, stays off alcohol and is of good behaviour.

Fr Bennett, 72, who lives in nearby Killiney, was given a five-year suspended sentence last year after he was convicted of indecently assaulting four boys between 1974 and 1981, while he was spiritual adviser and games master at posh Gormanstown College, Co Meath. Fr Maguire, 60, from Navan, Co Meath, got a three-year suspended sentence in February for molesting two boys in 1979.

Other disgraced priests who have attended the institute for counselling include defrocked Fr Donal Collins – who shot to notoriety as the first priest named in the Ferns Report.

THE COPS

GARDA CONOR BROUGH and GARDA SERGEANT KIERAN O'HALLORAN: Sergeant O'Halloran, 45, was convicted of soliciting a child and with having child-porn on his computer.

EX-GARDA CONOR BROUGH, 44, from Raheny, north Dublin, had been attending the Granada Institute for four months before he was sentenced for possessing child porn.

THE TEACHER

DAVID LOWRY: Lowry, of Castleknock, north Dublin, pleaded guilty in 2001 to sexually assaulting six boys, five of them former pupils at two schools, in the '50s and late '60s.

THE STUDENT

MARK TEELING: was convicted in 2002 of possessing and importing child pornography – containing images of boys as young as nine. The student from Clontarf was 22-years-old when gardai seized his computer.

THE GRADUATE

ADRIAN SAVAGE: Philosophy grad Adrian Savage, 44, was ordered to attend the centre by a court in 2004, when he was convicted of downloading child porn. The perv lives in Bray – just two miles from the institute.

THE NERD

PATRICK KAVANAGH: The Limerick computer grad was caught taking sneak pics of majorettes' legs during the St Patrick's Day parade in Limerick. Kavanagh, 51, pleaded guilty to 14 counts of possession of child porn.

THE FAMILY MEN

MAURICE DORAN and GERARD McMAHON: A judge ordered divorced dad of six Gerard McMahon to attend the Granada Institute when he was convicted of downloading child porn. The judge described the images of "amongst the worst that have come before the courts." In March this year, Maurice Dolan was given a two-year stretch in the clink for possession of child porn.

THE BOOK KEEPER

PAUL BRADSHAW: Book keeper Paul Bradshaw, 34, from Dundrum, was assessed as having a "moderate risk of re-offending" when he was convicted of being in possession of child porn last February.

THE CHILD CARER

GERARD CLEERE: The Kilkenny man, later to become a priest, was just 18 years old when he indecently assaulted two little boys in his care.
