beauty of South Africa

SOUTH Africa is the ultimate holiday destination with, literally, everything under the sun.

You can spend the morning on safari, have a boozy lunch in a vineyard, sunbathe in the afternoon and spend the evening sampling Cape Town's glitzy nightlife - and flirting in 11 languages. And if that's too tame for you, there are plenty of adrenalin-fuelled activities on offer, which will have you boasting in the pub for months afterwards - and you'll have some holiday snaps worth showing off.

SHARKS

Pick from diving with great white sharks (protected only by a cage), quad-bike rallying over terrain that makes your seatbelt pointless, trekking across the savannah on an elephant and getting into a cage with a cheetah. I lived out my National Geographic and Born Free
