NEWS IN BRIEF

SHOT PRIEST HONoured

LOCALS in Butlerstown in Waterford City this week erected a plaque to mark the tenth anniversary of the murder of a priest.

Fr Rufus Halley was shot dead on the island of Mindanao on August 28, 2001.

Speaking yesterday committee chairman Billy Walsh said: "He was trying to bring peace between the Muslims and the Catholics in the Philippines and he almost succeeded when tragedy struck."

HEALY-RAE IS REPLACED

KERRY TD Michael Healy-Rae is to be replaced on the Citizens Information Board the man who blew the whistle on AIB.

Eugene McErlen has been appointed to the position after Minister for Social Protection Joan Burton introduced legislation which removed Deputy Healy-Rae.

The South Kerry Independent had been appointed when his father was supporting Fianna Fail in Government.
