HEROIC: Gerrard
Kop nod to Steve in States

By MIKE PARKER

STEVEN GERRARD's new fans in Los Angeles are planning to put him through the emotional wringer again following his tearful departure from Liverpool. They aim to greet him with the Anfield anthem You'll Never Walk Alone at his first home game as an L.A. Galaxy player. And yesterday David Garcia, a member of the club's famous Riot Squad of supporters, promised: "We'll be giving him a hero's welcome that will make the hair on the back of his neck stand up."

Fanatic

He said huge numbers of fans aim to copy the traditional Kop reception Gerrard (34), has been used to receiving for the past 17 years, adding: "We've also asked the club to consider playing the Gerry and the Pacemakers version of You'll Never Walk Alone as the team comes out." Fellow Riot Squad fanatic Matt McCubbin said: "He will be an instant superstar in MLS and he's going to be blown away by the reaction when he first steps out."
